

We invite the Ojai Community to join us for the

Tu B'Shvat Seder
celebrating the
New Year of the Trees

Wednesday, February 8, 2012 at 6:00 p.m. at the
Ojai Valley Woman's Club
441 E. Ojai Avenue
Ojai, California

For traditionalists, the day began as a day of tithing, a day of taxation, the day that separated the dark of winter and the beginning of spring. In our day, it has become the festival of The Tree and a time to eat its fruits, discuss environmental issues, plant trees, and learn how the teachings of the Torah can protect the earth.

Come join K'hilat Ha'Aloneem, Community of the Oaks to celebrate Tu B'Shvat with Bill Kaplan, Executive Director of the Shalom Institute associated with Camp JCA Shalom, and to sing with Cantor Michael as we gather together to eat and rejoice in the miracle of the trees.

Cost: $25.00 per person, including dinner

Please RSVP by February 3 to:

Barbara Hirsch, c/o KHA , 1915 Meiners Rd., Ojai, CA 93023
